3 Travel info

3.1 Currency

The official currency is czech crown (CZK) . 1 EUR ~ 27 CZK. In many supermarkets and restaurants in downtown, you can pay in EUR (with adverse rate, usually). Credit cards are applicable in most restaurants and in nearly any shop.

3.2 Transportation

3.2.1 Public transportation system

It is very common to use public transportation system. Only in rush-hours one can get delays up to 15 minutes on buses. Subway and trams are very precise. Googlemaps are very helpful in finding the right way.

Subway is operating from 5:00 am till 11:59 pm at least. Buses and trams operation time differs for each line. Few trams and buses are operating after midnight too.

Public transportation for 90 minutes costs 32 CZK. For 30 minutes about 24 CZK, 1 day (24 hours) 110 CZK, 3 days 310 CZK. You can swap lines anytime. You have to validate the ticket at first use in validator machine near entrance to the subway or inside bus/tram.

On bus stop at airport and at few places in downtown one can find ticket machine for credit cards. Otherwise, you have to buy tickets at cash machines in subway stations or at tobacco shops (cash/credit card)

3.2.2 Taxi

Official taxi from airport will get you anywhere in Prague for standard rate about 500 CZK (about 20 EUR). Rates per kilometre are from 16-30 CZK, boarding tax about 40 CZK, depending on taxi company.

3.2.3 Private car

3.2.3.1 Highways

Vignette for highways: buy in advance or at border in a shop/gas pump/post office. The price for cars up to 3.5 t is for 10 days 310 CZK, month 440 CZK, year 1500 CZK (prices for year 2017). Details at <http://www.dalnicni-znamky.com/en/>

3.2.3.2 Parking at Prague

Around Prague are P+R with good and fast connection to downtown. For parking check signs and parking machines. Details about parking zones are at <http://www.parkujvklidu.cz/prague-parking/> There are no EURO limits for driving car in downtown. At CMI Hvoždanská, there is free parking lot in front of gate or you can use few parking lots inside the CMI area.

3.2.4 Bike rentals

It is not too much usual to use bikes in Prague, so there is not much special ways for bikers. You have to share roads with cars. In the case, that you prefer bike instead of walking, here is a shop nearest to subway station „Skalka“ (in walking distance):

FAME sport, Úvalska 28, Praha

<http://www.famesport.cz/pujcovna/>

It is opened from 10:30 till 19:30 during working days. The price is very roughly about 80 EUR per 9 days. You have to rent the bike in advance.

3.3 Meals

In Prague, cheapest meal (one dish) for lunch costs about 4-6 EUR, cheapest dinner meal (one dish) about 6-15 EUR.
